As FBLA members, we are thankful for many things. We asked our dedicated members what they thought, and we got answers that ranged from family and friends to characteristics of people.

“I am thankful that our school gives us so many experiences with FBLA.”
Savannah Skidmore

“Being a part of this incredible organization.” Jesus Castaneda

“I am thankful for all of my family, having food to eat every night, having clothes on my back, and having a roof over my head. Also for my best friend and good friends.” Angelica Fernandez

“Life and how forgiving people can be.” Byren Dowers

“I am thankful for our school because they give us so many opportunities for us to succeed... and my family.” Bianca McUne

“Roof over my head, food on my plate, shoes on my feet... family... awesome friends.” Abby True

In addition, we asked our members what FBLA means to them.

“Raising young people to learn how to be good business leaders once they graduate.” Josee Newman

“It’s a chance to have opportunities to explore different things and learn leadership skills.” McKenzie Lembcke

As energetic supporters of our school, we take pride in showing school spirit. To us, Wilson Creek pride means...

“Supporting your school and being respectful towards your community.”
Anissa Odorizzi

“Having pride in being a Wilson Creek Devil and support our teams, fundraisers, and events.” Ella True

Leadership is the foundation of FBLA. We asked our members to define leadership, and the answers we received were above and beyond what we expected.

“To be a bigger person and take the lead even when it’s tough.” Zoe Alberti

“Making your own path instead of following someone else’s.”
Hailey Skidmore
