Position Details: Wilson Creek is seeking a 1st/2nd Grade Combination Classroom Teacher. The district is looking for a positive and enthusiastic certificated teacher who is not only endorsed to teach primary grades, but who also has experience in teaching young children with rigor and high expectations in a fun learning meaningful manner, while creating a positive learning environment that is well managed. Applicants must hold or be eligible for an active Washington State Teaching Certificate.

Wilson Creek is a small school district located approximately 30 miles north of Moses Lake, and 20 miles east of Ephrata. We are a small school district with an enrollment of 170 students, preschool through 12th grade. Set within a rural farming community, students come from within a 25-mile radius to attend our school. With nearly 60% choice students, our school feels very much like a private school. We routinely receive annual awards such as School of Distinction and Achievement for Academic Excellence, and are proud of decades of a 100% graduation rate. Wilson Creek provides teachers the opportunity to (1) work with small class sizes (18 or less), (2) provide individualized/targeted instruction to students, and (3) work collaboratively with a caring and welcoming student-focused, professional staff.

Reports To: Principal/Superintendent

Program Description: Throughout each week, students will spend time with various specialists including library, music, and physical education. One of the many advantages for staff and students in the Wilson Creek School District is our small size. We are currently projecting between 10-12 students in each grade for the upcoming school year.
